

Christ Church

Current Trends in the Anthropology of Bureaucracy

Hilary Term 2018

Tuesdays, 4.00pm

Tom 8, Lecture Room 1, Christ Church (Oxford)

- | | |
|------------------------------|---|
| Week 1
16 January | Eda Pepi, Yale
Exclusive Registers:
Gendered Citizenship and Bureaucratic Ambiguity in Jordan |
| Week 2
23 January | Michael M. Prentice, Harvard
Corporate Groups and the Visible Hand of Administration:
A Case from South Korea |
| Week 3
30 January | José-María Muñoz, Edinburgh
The Long Road to Dematerialisation:
Dynamics of Transport Bureaucracies in Cameroon |
| Week 4
6 February | Seamus Montgomery, Oxford
A Political Administration:
Identity and Belonging in the Juncker Commission |
| Week 5
13 February | Bernardo Zacka, Cambridge
When the Rules Run Out:
Informal Taxonomies at the Front Lines of Public Service |
| Week 6
20 February | Julie Billaud, Sussex
“Keepers of the Truth”:
Documenting Human Rights at the UN Universal Periodic Review |
| Week 7
27 February | Anna Tuckett, LSE
Paper, Rules, Status:
Migrants and Precarious Bureaucracy in Contemporary Italy |
| Week 8
6 March | Nayanika Mathur, Oxford
"The Indian state is nothing but a paper tiger":
For an anthropology of the bureaucratic state |

Convened by Chihab El Khachab

chihab.elkhachab@chch.ox.ac.uk