

Russia's Long Century: Identity, Empire, and Nationhood

St Antony's College, Oxford | 17-18 May 2017

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Wednesday, 17 May 2017

- 09:00 - 09:30 Registration
Pavilion Room, Gateway Building
- 09:30 - 10:00 Coffee
- 10:00 - 10:30 Opening Words: Professor Margaret MacMillan (St Antony's College, Oxford)
- 10:30 - 11:45 Keynote: Dr Dace Dzenovska (Oxford Centre on Migration, Policy and Society)
"Crisis of Liberalism and the Russian Threat: Perspectives from Latvia, the Place Where History Never Ended"
- 12:00 - 13:00 Panel 1.1: State, Nation, and Protest in Ukraine and the Baltic Countries
Board Room, Ghassan Shaker Building
- 12:00 - 13:00 Panel 1.2: Civilisation, Violence, and Centre-periphery Relations in Soviet History
Deakin Room, Founder's Building
- 13:00 - 14:00 Lunch
- 14:30 - 15:30 Panel 1.3: Russia in the International System
Board Room, Ghassan Shaker Building
- 14:30 - 15:30 Panel 1.4: The Other Struggle: Nationality and Ethnopolitics
Deakin Room, Founder's Building

Thursday, 18 May 2017

- 10:00 - 11:30 Workshops & Film Screening
Pavilion Room, Gateway Building
- 11:30 - 12:00 Coffee
- 12:00 - 13:00 Panel 2.1: The USSR in Letter and Memory
Board Room, Ghassan Shaker Building
- 12:00 - 13:00 Panel 2.2: Narratives of Contemporary Russian Identity
Pavilion Room, Gateway Building
- 13:00 - 14:00 Adjourn & Lunch

All are welcome. Register to attend at russiaslongcentury.com

Support for this conference generously provided by the Antonian Fund and the Russian and East European Studies Programme, University of Oxford

The Antonian Fund

